

Prof. Dr.-Ing Srecko Stopic is employed at the Technical University in Aachen as teacher in nonferrous Metallurgy and project Leader in EURO-TITAN Project!

Born: 03.04.1965 (Uzice, Serbia)

---

"Panta Tutundzic" award for "Academic Excellence" at the Belgrade University, Serbia, 1988, 1989

Assistant Professor, Faculty of Technology and Metallurgy & Director at the Balkan Center for Metallurgy, situated in Smederevo at the Institute for Iron Metallurgy, Serbia, 1999-2001

Alexander von Humboldt Research Fellowship, award for "Academic Excellence", Bonn, 2002

"German Copper Institute in Düsseldorf", award for Research in Nanotechnology of Copper, Stolberg, 2005

Research Award by German Associations of Miners and Metallurgists at 66th meeting of the Lead Experts Committee, Pribram, Prague, Czech Republic, 05/2011

Kaiserpfalz-Preis for Nonferrous Metallurgy in Goslar, Germany, by German Economic Chamber, 2012

Associate Professor, Technical University Aachen, Germany, 2014

Visiting Professor at the Faculty of Technology Zvornik, 2017

10 famous Serbian people award for career excellence and high contribution to the development of Serbia, Duesseldorf, 02.10.2019

Award of City Uzice for his excellence and continuous work in metallurgy, 07.10.2022

Outstanding reviewer in Centre for Evaluation in Education and Science, 2020, Belgrade, Serbia

Outstanding reviewer award in Metals, MDPI, Basel, Switzerland, 2020

Outstanding reviewer award in Crystals, MDPI, Switzerland, 2023

Visiting Professor at the Felix Boigny University on Hydrogen Course, Ivory Coast, Africa, 2023

Elected for principal research fellow at the Belgrade University, 23.12.2024

Outstanding reviewer award in Materials, MDPI, Basel, Switzerland, 2025

Published 252 papers, 6 books and worked at 50 International projects

Outstanding Editor Award, April 2026, MDPI, Switzerland